

VeinTonic

Endobiogenic Concept™ Formula #32

Important Reasons to use Veintonic:

- It has been used successfully for years in clinical practice
- It is a Synergistic combination of herbs
- Vein support
- Venous Insufficiency

What VeinTonic Does:

Each of the four herbs in this formula has been used for hundreds of years to treat conditions involving veins and vascular edema. This Endobiogenics Concept™ Formula combines the herbs in optimal proportion and was perfected over years of clinical use. The herbs act synergistically to treat problems of the venous system. Vein Tonic has strong anti inflammatory action, it strengthens and heals vein walls, helps control venous bleeding, reduces venous edema and helps control infection.

VeinTonic has been used for:

- Pelvic Congestion,
- Edema,
- Varicose veins,
- Chronic venous insufficiency,
- Venous edema,
- Hemorrhoids,
- Thrombophlebitis.

Warning: Veintonic should not be used by pregnant or lactating women or women who might become pregnant.
